NAVSEA 04

SEA 04L5 POLICY UPDATE

13 July 2004

Donna S. Johnson

Version 1.0

NAVSEAINST 4130.12 AND ASSOCIATED GUIDANCE MANUAL

- Final Draft contains Configuration Management Policy and Procedures for CM Acquisition and Life Cycle Management
- Incorporates of Ship Characteristics Improvement Plan requirements for Engineering Change Proposals
- BMC5ISR – Battle Management, Command , Control, Communications, Computers, Combat, Intelligences, Surveillance and Reconnaissance
- New Technical Authority Requirements
- Final draft is being routed for concurrence
- Final signature will be NAVSEA 00

Donna S. Johnson

- NAVSEA 04L5 Software Policy Letter 01-04 expounds on the requirement to document software, hardware, and firmware in accordance with NAVSEAINST 4130.12B.

- Implementation guidance is included in the software policy letter and provides procedures for identifying, documenting and controlling configuration status accounting records for U.S. Navy Platforms and Associated Training Sites.

- Final is in route for approval/signature.

Donna S. Johnson

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATION 9090-700

- Draft Revision "D" is being revisited to include several new requirements and initiatives from the Fleet.

  - Fleet Response Plan
  – Unique Identification (UID)
  – Software Implementation/Policy
  – Roles and Responsibilities for the CDMs and ISEAs
  – Validations/Audits processes and procedures
  – Record Type 6 (RT6)
  – Autosirs and work arounds
  – XRIC

Donna S. Johnson   Keeping America's Navy #1 in the Wo

NAVSEAINST 4790.1B (DRAFT)

- ESWBS – This instruction has been revised and will be renamed Hierarchical Structure Codes (HSCs)

- Electronic options/versions of the ESWBS Manual are being explored.

Donna S. Johnson

- Reason for exploring electronic version alternatives.

  - Current manual is not up to date

  - Hard copy format is cost prohibitive

  - Allows for easy maintainability of an electronic version in realtime at a reasonable cost.

13 July 2004   Donna S. Johnson   Keeping America's Navy #1 in the Wo